In 2014 the program will bring 10-12 students to the University of Maryland, College Park campus for eight-weeks. Participants will work side-by-side with a faculty mentor on a guided research project, attend weekly seminars and visit local research institutions in the Washington, D.C., Maryland, and Virginia area. Finally, students will present their work at a poster session at the end of the program.

Program duration: June 2 - July 25, 2014

Stipend: $2,700 (before taxes)

Provisions: Airfare, Housing and Meals

Application Deadline: February 14, 2014

Status Notification: Early April, 2014

All students who will be rising juniors or seniors in Fall 2014 are eligible for the Summer Research Initiative. The University of Maryland has a strong institutional commitment to the principle of diversity. In that spirit, we are very interested in receiving applications from a broad spectrum of individuals, specifically African American, Hispanic, and American Indian students. Applicants must also meet ALL of the following requirements:

1. Be citizens or permanent residents of the United States;
2. Be enrolled full-time at an accredited four-year higher education institution and obtain junior or senior status in the Fall 2014-15 academic year;
3. Demonstrate an interest in pursuing graduate study in one of the behavioral, social or economic sciences;
4. Will have taken a basic statistics or research methodology course; and
5. Possess an excellent academic record including a 3.0 or better cumulative GPA and 3.2 or better GPA in their major field.
