

Communications Internship: Fall 2017

Wisconsin League of Conservation Voters seeks interns for course credit for the September - December 2017 Semester

About the Wisconsin League of Conservation Voters

Wisconsin League of Conservation Voters is a nonprofit, nonpartisan organization dedicated to electing conservation leaders, holding decision makers accountable and encouraging lawmakers to champion conservation policies that effectively protect Wisconsin's public health and natural resources. For more information on the organization, visit www.conservationvoters.org.

Internship Responsibilities

Interns will learn more about the operations of nonprofit organizations and will work closely with experienced professional staff. Intern(s) will gain skills in field organizing, public policy, and development while also learning more about conservation policy.

Reporting to the Communications Director, the Communications Intern(s) will play a key role in supporting WLCV's media strategy, assisting with: 1) updating media contacts; 2) outreach to and tracking of traditional media; 3) promoting conservation issues on social media; and 4) writing letters to the editor on conservation issues to newspapers across the state.

Skills Required

- Organized with strong written and verbal communication skills.
- Ability to conduct research on-line or through traditional media.
- Database management experience and event planning skills a plus.
- Independently motivated and enjoy working with people.

Details

- Interns will work from the Madison office of Wisconsin League of Conservation Voters, located ~2 blocks from the Capitol and on the bus line.
- Interns may earn 2-4 course credits (typically, students earn 1 credit for every 3-4 hours worked per week). The position is unpaid.
- Interns are responsible for finding a faculty sponsor and meeting all internship requirements of the college or university.

To Apply

Please send a letter of interest and resume to Seth Hoffmeister at seth@conservationvoters.org. Call 920-249-7400 with any questions.

Deadline

Positions are Limited. Early Applications will be given preference.