

The Wachs for Wisconsin campaign is looking for motivated, progressive individuals who can commit up to 10 hours per week at the Madison campaign office. This is a great opportunity to be exposed to campaign fundraising, database management, event planning, and other aspects of Democratic campaigning. Wachs for Wisconsin is a democratic gubernatorial campaign and all internships are unpaid.

Intern Responsibilities include but may not be limited to:

- Researching potential donors
- Donor outreach and follow up
- Event planning and staffing
- Database management
- Data Integrity
- Assisting campaign staff on potential projects
- Other duties as required

Applicant qualifications:

- Strong written and verbal communication skills
- Familiarity with common computer programs such as Microsoft Office
- Attention to detail
- Ability to work independently, and manage multiple tasks
- Ability to commit at least 10 hours a week during normal office hours
- Enthusiasm for Democratic politics and a commitment to defeating Scott Walker

Internships Sessions and application dates are as follow:

- Fall Session: Early September to December 2017, Due Sep 1, 2017
- Spring Session: Mid January to May 2018, Due Dec 15, 2017
- Summer Session: Mid May to August 2018, Due Apr 15, 2018

Applicants should email a cover letter, resume, and list of references to joe@danawachs.com with "Finance Intern" in the subject line. Applications for the Fall Session are due September 1st. Positions will be filled on a rolling basis and we encourage any interested to apply as soon as possible.

Paid for by Wachs for Wisconsin
Kyle Weatherly, Treasurer